EAGLE POINT HIGH SCHOOL
FRIDAY APRIL 30, 1930

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB TO PRESENT OPERETTA

"WILD ROSE" OPERETTA HAS CLEVER PLOT

The "Wild Rose" operetta will be given by the Eagle Point girls glee club on Friday evening May 9.

The very capable cast of characters chosen by Miss Miller are as follows:

Bobbie (Mary Hannaford) A bell boy who takes charge of the maids in a lordly fashion.

Mrs. Fussy (Margueritte Marshall) Rose McCloud's housekeeper.

Rose McCloud (Margaret Brophy) A popular young society belle.

Molly, Polly, and Dora (Hazel Helms, Hazel Smith, and Gladys Cowden) Debutantes who are Rose's friends.

Miss Writemup and Miss Putendown (Myrtle Rigsby and Donna Brown) Very annoying reporters.

Madame Sewseams (Freda Chambers) A dressmaker.

Madame Feathertop (Dorothy Pearce) A milliner.

Madame Smellsweet (Dorothy Wilhite) A perfumer.

Lady Grey (Alice Davis) An eccentric playwright.

Rose McCloud's Maids--
Eleanor Throcknorton, Freda Chambers, Dorothy Wilhite, Verona Davis, Alice Walker, Dorothy Davis, Frances Barnes, Sybil Caster, Sylvia Hankins, Geneva Meyers, and Alice Davis.

Rose McCloud, the most popular young society belle of her time, is bored with her artificial existence. An endless round of festivities and a maddening procession of adoring debutantes, newspaper interviewers, dressmakers, milliners, and etc., drive her to distraction. Having achieved great success in society theatricals, she decides to go on the stage, and is desirous of obtaining the leading role in a play by Lady Grey--an eccentric woman playwright. Much to her amazement and disappointment, Lady Grey flatly refuses to consider her for the part. In utter disgust Rose decides to leave the city surroundings, which have become so hateful and go to the country under an assumed name.

The second act takes place at her country establishment, where she is thoroughly enjoying the simple life. She makes friends with a nice old country lady who lives next door and who turns out to be Lady Grey. When the latter discovers the true identity of Rose, she promises her the desired role in the play, and all ends happily.

FAREWELLS

The next few weeks will be the last days that our "Seniors" will be with us as members of our school.

After four years of hard work, earnest studying and indulging in the joys and pastimes which are found in the happy high school days, they have earned their reward of graduation.

The teachers who have supervised our instruction this year and are now venturing to new fields and duties or staying with us for another year will be remembered through the future years as the leaders of the many pleasant school activities that every one loves to look back to and dream about.

We regret to say goodbye to these fellow students and friendly teachers, but it seems that goodbyes must always come.

With our "Farewells" we shall say, "Goodbye and Good Luck."

This paper will be the final edition of the Eagle's Quill for this year. As there are only three more weeks of school the students are very busy with studies besides working on the Operetta. Thank You for your subscription. We hope you enjoyed the paper.

EAGLE POINT FIRST IN CONVENTION PARADE

There were nine delegates from the Eagle Point Christian Endeavor, who attended the Marshfield Convention, April 24 to 27.

Crater Lake Union led the parade after the state officers, and Eagle Point led the Union.

The Crater Lake Union's invitation was accepted and the State Convention will be held in Medford in 1931.
